BAY ST. LOUIS, MISS., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1943

VOL. 52 — No. 47

O. D. Ashworth, field director state civilian defense, was in Bay St. Louis on Tuesday and the contract for the four passenger ambulance was signed by Mayor Balize and City Commissioner H. Grady Perkins. The city through the local OCD by the Federal Government.

Colonel Linville K. Martin and the W. A. C. Caravan from Gulfport, Miss., will be in Bay St. Louis Friday, November 19th and Saturday, November 20th and will be camped in the lot next to the Postoffice on Main street.

The WAC Caravan consists of twenty chaste WACS and one WAC officer, a seven piece band—Frank Bennett and his Jive Bombers, composers, musicians who have played with leading bands in America including Benny Goodman, George Olsen, Isam Jones and others, and a Mariachi show given by Pvt. Estelito Trujillo.

The WACS on the program both singing and interview prospective WACS.

Shows will be given at the Caravan at 10 and 11:30 A. M. and 2:30 and 4 P. M. on both days.

Come and let the WACS themselves tell you what the U. S. Army has to offer.

A message from the Mississippi State Salvage Committee of Jackson, stated in part:

"Notwithstanding that a year ago the paper campaign swamped the mills, we now face a paper shortage because of the requirements of our Armed Services for containers, in which, to ship food stuffs, ammunition and numerous mechanical parts. Some paper mills are working exclusively on war orders and are unable to secure sufficient paper to operate full time."

So, you will again be asked to save paper.

Information will be given you as to who will collect it or where you can take it—in this column.

Save Your Waste Fats to Make Explosives

The need is urgent. War in the Pacific has greatly reduced our supply of vegetable fats from the Far East. It is necessary to find substitutes for them. Fats make glycerine, and glycerine makes explosives for us and our Allies. Explosives to down Axis planes, stop their tanks, sink their ships. We need millions of pounds of glycerine and you housewives can supply it. Don't throw away a single drop of used cooking fat.

When you have saved a pound or more take it to Schaff's Grocery Store and he will pay you for it. It will help him if you deliver your fats early in the week.

Mrs. M. Goelenleucher Of Waveland Dies

Mrs. Mathilda Goelenleucher, widow of the late William Goelenleucher died at her home 2345 Wisteria Street, New Orleans on Tuesday, November 16.

Mrs. Goelenleucher was a former resident of Waveland having lived there permanently until the death of her husband 16 years ago and since then she has been a summer visitor.

Her son William Goelenleucher has resided in Waveland since 1930 and is connected with the Chadwick Trading Post.

The Echo extends sympathy to the family of the deceased.

She leaves besides Mr. William Goelenleucher a daughter, Mrs. C. B. Cahill, two sons S. Petrie and Fred Goelenleucher. She also leaves two sisters Mrs. J. Madge and Mrs. J. Agegard of Biloxi, six grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Mrs. Louisa Lott Whitfield Dies at Logtown

Mrs. Louisa Lott Whitfield, 78, died at her home in Logtown, Thursday at 1:30 a. m. of a heart ailment from which she has suffered for several years.

Funeral services will be held this Friday afternoon at 2:30 from her residence with interment in Corinth cemetery.

Harnett Kane to Review 'The Bayous of Louisiana'

Don't forget that Tuesday, November 30 is the day that Harnett Kane will review his "The Bayous of Louisiana" at the Episcopal Parish House, at 3:15 p. m. It is seldom that the library board can offer an author reviewing his own book, so don't miss it.

Corporal Carl Heitzmann Praise Work of Red Cross

In a letter received this week by Mrs. George Heitzmann, from her son, Corporal Carl Heitzmann, from "somewhere in Italy," he tells of the wonderful work being carried on by the American Red Cross, here and overseas. While traveling through the States they are given stationery and other useful articles at most of the stations where stops are made. When they boarded the boat to leave they were given a kit full of useful articles, and on the boat they were supplied with many different games to amuse themselves, and pass the time away. In foreign camps they are provided with many useful necessities.

MISS MARION CHAPMAN BECOMES BRIDE OF CAPT. K. L. MCINTOSH

One of the prettiest weddings among the many being celebrated here, and one claiming interest here and in New Orleans as well as other coast towns was that of Miss Marion Chapman, daughter of Mr. W. L. Chapman and the late Mr. Chapman of this city and Captain Kenneth Lee McIntosh, Army of the United States, son of Captain Kenneth C. McIntosh, U. S. Navy, and Mrs. McIntosh of Boston, Mass., which was solemnized at Christ Episcopal Church on Saturday, November 13, at 7:30 P. M., the Rev. Warwick Aiken officiating at the double ring ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated in white and green with the tall standard baskets filled with white chrysanthemums through which were the seven branched candelabra with the lighted white candles which gave the only light for the ceremony.

To the strains of the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin played by Mrs. C. L. Horton the bride entered on the arm of her brother Mr. William Chapman who gave her in marriage. She formed a lovely picture of youth in a wedding gown of white satin and lace which was fashioned with a long waist line the long over the hand sleeve of lace and a neck finished with seed pearls. The skirt was full and finished with a long train. The off-the-face veil of illusion was held to the head with a wreath of the natural elephant's tuffe. She wore as her only ornament a sapphire bracelet, a gift from Capt. McIntosh's mother. She carried an arm bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Her maid of honor was her cousin Miss Carolyn Marshall of Bay St. Louis and her bridesmaid was Miss Sally Curry of Harrisburg, Louisiana. Both were gowns of light blue embroidered mousseline de soie over tulle made with off the shoulder necks and they carried the arm bouquets of bronze chrysanthemums tied with a broad bronze ribbon.

Captain McIntosh has as his best man Mr. Walter G. Allee, Jr., of New Orleans and as his groomsmen, Mr. Norvin Penrose of New Orleans and Bay St. Louis. Mr. Wallace Chapman, uncle of the bride of Biloxi and her cousin Henry Otis of Logtown, acted as ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dupiquier where the house was profusely decorated with Southern Smilax and white chrysanthemums. Receiving with Mrs. Dupiquier who were a becoming evening dress of black satin and net was the bride's mother Mrs. Chapman wearing black crepe with pearls and a shoulder corsage of white roses.

In the dining room the bride cut her three tiered wedding cake at a lace covered table where white tapets burned in silver holders.

Later the couple left for Fort Sill, Oklahoma, where Captain McIntosh is an instructor. For traveling the bride wore a red wool suit with a matching hat and accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Bay High where she won many honors being selected as the leading lady in the class play and being chosen May Queen. She also attended Louisiana State Normal College. She was a general favorite here and in school.

Captain McIntosh is a graduate of the University of Virginia and is a member of the Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity. His mother is the former Miss Margaret Lea of New Orleans.

Out of town relatives and friends were Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Otis, Miss Mildred and Minnie Otis, Miss Caro Weston, Miss Ethel Otis, Logtown; Mrs. J. Cude Rousseau, Miss Carol Pearl Rousseau of Covington, La.; Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Chapman of Biloxi; Mrs. Warwick Aiken, Pass Christian; Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Lee, Mrs. Horatio Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Boswell, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Chapman, Mrs. Juanita Chapman, Mrs. C. C. Olney, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Barringer, Mrs. Walter G. Allee, Jr., Mrs. L. W. Chapman, Miss Anna Chapman and Mr. Henry Chapman, of New Orleans.

The wedding was the culmination of a romance dating back to the grade school days of the bride and unites two families whose friendship extends over a period of many years. The Echo extends to this couple many wishes of happiness which they so richly deserve.

WOMEN NEEDED TO JOIN THE WACS

A Vital Army needs you. Join the WACS NOW.

The call is urgent. Hundreds of thousands of women are needed in the WACS at once. By joining the WACS the American women can help in an important way to bring our soldiers home sooner.

The stronger our attacking armies at the front the sooner will come the day of victory and every woman who joins the Wacs adds new strength to our armies as surely as any soldier. For by taking over an Army job behind the lines she frees a fighting man to join his fellow soldiers on the road to victory.

THE WACS—What they are.

WAC stands for Women Army Corps. When you join the Wacs you are actually part of the U. S. Army. You don't pull triggers or fire cannon but you take over a vital Army job behind the lines. A job that is essential to the office of civilian defense.

The office of civilian defense is the recruiting office. The campaign for recruiting will extend through December 7. Telephone Mrs. Geo. R. Rea, county chairman, Mrs. Roger Boh or Mrs. S. A. Power, for an appointment. They will be glad to give you free information.

The Mississippi Coast Hotel Association enjoyed a dinner at Hotel Reed on Wednesday night of last week with the general manager of the hotel H. W. LeTissier as host.

History was made at this meeting when certificates of honorary life memberships were presented to seven pioneers of the hotel industry on the Gulf Coast, who are not now active in hotels covered by this regional association.

Mississippi Coast Hotel Association Meets at Hotel Reed Wednesday Night

Presentations of the certificates was made by Mr. LeTissier, president of the association, to Clayton Rand, Gulfport, owner of the Dixie Press, writer, lecturer, columnist, and bubbling with ideas to promote the coast and a true friend of the hotels; Carl Marshall, attorney of this city but with offices in Gulfport, who has given freely of his time and talents to the industry; Walter Reed of Biloxi, one of the organizers of the association and who managed several hotels on the coast; George Stannus, who built the new Biloxi and who was also one of the organizers of the association and who is now with the Government; George Wilkinson, formerly with the Markham in Gulfport, past president of the association and now manager of the Waltham at Jackson; Mrs. Jackson, formerly manager of the Miramar, Pass Christian, also a past president and now with Fairchilds at Henderson Point. Capt. John White was absent as he is now in the Army stationed at Lowry Field, Colorado. He formerly managed the White House.

When Clayton Rand and Carl Marshall are guests at the same board it is needless to say that with the humor ran riot and laughter rang clear and hearty. Their professions are widely divergent but their gay repartee and their common nature and had there been nothing on the program but these two brilliant speakers there would have been sufficient entertainment.

But with the usual refreshments that go with such a gathering of friends, a delicious sea food meal was provided by the hosts after which much speech making and expressions of good fellowship were expounded by the group. There were approximately twenty present. The association is now incorporated and a charter for fifty years has been issued to it by the state of Mississippi.

ENTERTAIN AT BRIDGE

Mrs. E. N. Spence and Mrs. N. L. Carter entertained at a bridge luncheon at Hotel Reed on Thursday honoring Mrs. Robert Abbot of Alexandria, La., a house guest here of Mrs. J. H. Thomson on Waveland Beach.

Besides the honoree and the hostesses those present were Mesdames S. A. Power, Walter J. Gex, H. A. Eldredge, Donald McCullough, Alfred Vassalli, M. A. Gilmore, Mrs. Richard Shadoin and Mrs. Howard Smith, daughter of Mrs. Carter.

HAS BIRTHDAY PARTY

Gerald Kiefer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kiefer, celebrated his 8th birthday with a party on Monday at his home on North Beach. His guests were his classmates and included Temple Perkins, Karen Kerstgen, Beatrice Favre, Hilda Jane Favre, Catherine Benigno, Jeanne Kinta Kergosien, Burt Stiefel, Gerald Oles, Larry Muffray, Larry Schmitt, Edmund Miles, and James Keboe, Tommy Miles, and James Favre, Billy Whitfield and Anthony Benigno.

Games were played and ice cream was served with the birthday cake which was a large white cake with two Christmas angels on top made by Mrs. Kiefer.

DEDICATION CONCERT PRESENTED BY SAINT STANISLAUS BAND

Initial Concert Of The Year Proves Highly Entertaining To Large Group In Attendance

On Thursday evening, Nov. 11, the St. Stanislaus Band made its first public appearance of the year in a concert presentation that was dedicated to the various branches of the service, to the students and to the people on the home front. A large crowd of several hundred were in attendance and appeared highly pleased with the excellent performance of the Band. Brother Romuald Band Master was complimented by a personal invitation from Commander and Mrs. D. M. Dodson of the Merchant Marine School to repeat the program for the benefit of the Naval cadets.

The program was well chosen and the numbers appropriate to the respective dedications. However, the feature number on the evening's program was "Melody A La King" honoring Karl King erstwhile Band Leader of the famous Barnum and Bailey Circus. The musicians are to be complimented on their masterful rendition of these beautiful melodies.

Another interesting number was the "Merriment Polka" that featured a clarinet duet by Edward Steiner and Karl Fasold accompanied by the Band. This was a rather difficult feat and was well handled by the soloists and the band.

A most enjoyable highlight of the program was VanBethoven's Sonata No. 12 played by the concert pianist Mrs. Louis B. Pate. Her appearance on the program was greatly appreciated as it was in keeping with the dedication theme. Mrs. Pate has the distinction of being the only lady ever allowed to direct the United States Marine Band on the Capitol grounds in Washington, D. C.

As a gesture of appreciation to the younger members of the audience the Band included the current popular song "Pistol Packin' Mama" in its program. Naturally, this particular number demanded an encore on the part of the audience to which the band graciously acquiesced.

Too much praise can not be given the Band and its excellent leader Brother Romuald. Countless hours of practice were devoted to the task of preparing the concert and it is, indeed, gratifying to all of them to realize that the people found the program most pleasing. As a consequence they are already busy planning and preparing a second concert which will be announced in the very near future.

Meeting of Society of Christian Service

The Womens Society of Christian Service met on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Roy Cagle in Carroll avenue with Mrs. George Schilling, Mrs. Briscoe Goldman and Miss Lucy Richardson entertaining with Mrs. Cagle.

Owners of Foreign Property Must File Reports With Treasury Department

Citizens of Hancock County who own any property in foreign countries were notified by Postmaster Leo G. Ford today that they must file reports of their foreign holdings with the Treasury Department before December 1. The notice was given by means of a poster placed on display in the post offices.

Postmaster Ford points out that it is necessary for the government to have as complete information as possible on the American stake abroad to assist the military authorities and the civilian governments on the fighting fronts and to bring about sound solutions of the post-war problems.

Report forms known as TFR-500, may be obtained through commercial banks, or from the nearest Federal Reserve Bank, the postmaster states. Penalties are provided for those who willfully fail to file reports.

YOUTH ACCIDENTLY KILLED BY GUN

The Dedaux community was cast into gloom on Sunday afternoon when 9-year-old L. C. Necaise accidentally killed himself with a rifle.

It was said that L. C. was on the running board of a car in the yard of his home playing with the gun when it accidentally discharged, the bullet penetrating the brain. He was brought to the Kings Daughters Hospital here but died at 5 P. M. Shortly after being admitted to the hospital. It was said that the accident occurred at 4:15. He did not regain consciousness. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ceville Necaise of Dedaux. Besides his parents he is survived by two brothers and two sisters younger than he.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon with interment in Sandy Hill cemetery the Rev. Father Dennis administering the rites of the Catholic church.

To the bereaved parents the Echo extends deep sympathy in their loss and the tragedy of the child's death but let them feel that much of sorrow and suffering is spared him.

World Community Day Service Held At Methodist Church Thursday, Nov. 11

A World Community Day service was held at the Methodist Church on Thursday, November 11, at 10 a. m. The service was under the auspices of the Womens Society of Christian Service with Mrs. Warwick Aiken as the speaker.

The theme of the service was "The Cost of an Enduring Peace" and Mrs. Aiken made a most impressive and inspiring talk.

She talked on the topics "The Price of War and Peace", "Promises Will Not Produce an Enduring Peace", "A Hand, A Heart and a Fresh Determination", "Economic Interdependence" and "World Order". Mrs. Aiken brought to the war, its causes, its results, and the enduring peace and its cost home to each adult individual in this country as our responsibility. She left the plain truth of the result if when hostilities cease if we as people cease to feel the peoples of the world are no longer our concern. She stressed the six pillars of peace and their place in the price of an enduring peace.

She closed with the following quotation: "We believe that a supreme responsibility rests with the church. The church, being a creation of God in Jesus Christ, is called to proclaim to all men every where the way of life. Moreover, the church, which is now in reality a world community may be used of God to develop his spirit of righteousness and love in every race and nation and thus to make possible a just and enduring peace. For this service Christians must now dedicate themselves, seeking forgiveness for their sins and the constant guidance and help of God, upheld by faith that the kingdom of this world shall become the kingdom of Christ and that He shall reign forever and ever."

Music for the service was rendered by Mrs. J. B. Goldman at the piano and Mrs. Catherine Thomas, violin. The opening prayer was given by Rev. W. S. Allen, pastor Baptist Church and Rev. E. E. Samples pronounced the benediction.

Hubert Duckworth Talks Before Rotary Club

Hubert Duckworth spoke to the Bay St. Louis Rotary Club on Wednesday at its regular luncheon.

Mr. Duckworth gave a brief survey of the work done in the county through the office since it has been opened here.

His talk was most interesting and informative to the group as some were not aware of just how important a part the R. S. A. office has played in promoting industry in the county.

Christmas Package Mailed Last October Recently Received by Recipient

In the month of October last year the Knights of Columbus Council No. 1533 of Bay St. Louis mailed Christmas presents to their members overseas, one of which after considerable forwarding, we find has just recently reached its destination—just a little late for Christmas, but nevertheless deeply appreciated by the recipient.

Sgt. E. F. Monti, whose letter we quote herewith:

"September 4, 1943
Somewhere in Sicily

"Dear Brothers:
I received the prayer missal which you sent me for a Christmas present in yesterday's mail. It was a little late in getting to me, but you can be sure I appreciate your sending it. It will come in very handy to me over here, as it is very difficult to obtain religious articles of our faith where I am now.

This country is predominantly Catholic. Some of the churches here are rather old looking on the outside, but beautiful on the inside. The people here are friendly and like the American soldiers. The country is very poor, though. Food was pretty scarce when we came over and most of the people have ragged clothing and worn shoes. Even a few have no shoes at all and go barefooted.

The weather here is very warm most of the time and I haven't seen any rainfall in the last month. However, it is comfortable whether compared to that in Africa. When my outfit left Africa it was hitting around 110 degrees every day.

Since leaving the U. S. I have done quite a bit of traveling. My outfit travelled over 1500 miles along the coast of French North Africa and visited nearly every big city there. Among the towns I have visited was Casablanca; Morocco, a very modern city with palm lined boulevards. While there I visited the Cathedral of the Sacred Heart, or "Sacre Coeur," as they say in French, a large beautiful Cathedral with twin spires built completely out of adobe. On the inside it was lined with marble and marble floors. On the walls were many beautiful paintings, some of them dating back centuries.

On our way up along the coast we also saw the cities of Oran, Algiers and Constantine; all modern cities, but we didn't have much time to do any sight seeing as it was toward the end of the African campaign and we were traveling fast. I did get a chance to stop off at Batna in Algiers to see the ruins of the ancient Roman City there. The city was built sometime around the year 500 A. D. and destroyed by an earthquake two centuries later. A group of us fellows hired a guide to show us around and explain the different ruins to us. Some of them were very impressive, especially the old Roman Amphitheater, something like one of our modern stadiums.

We have a field Mass here every Sunday and once in a while get a chance to attend Mass at the churches in nearby cities. It would surprise you to see how many of our American soldiers attend Mass and receive Holy Communion on every Sunday.

Well, Brothers, space is getting short so I'll close now, hoping to return soon and join you all at the reunions. Remember me in your prayers. Regards to all.

Sgt. E. F. Monti"

Sponsors Armistice Program

Miss Julia Blaize head of the history department of Bay High sponsored an Armistice Day program at the assembly period on Thursday of last week.

Mrs. J. B. Goldman, leader of Girls Scout Troop No. 1 was in charge of the scouts part of the program. Mrs. Carl Smith, head of the music department presented the Girls Chorus in three vocal numbers.

The high light of the program was the "Armistice Day Message" brought to the group by the Rev. E. E. Samples, pastor Methodist church.

Miss Blaize deserves special credit for the splendid program which was so well given by the pupils.

The following is the program: Presentation of the Flag: Color bearer, Retta Kimmel; color guards Margalo Damborino and Dawn Solter; Pledge of Allegiance, Joyce Middleton; "A Glad Prayer," "America's on the March," high school chorus; introduction of speaker—Oscar Davis; "Armistice Day Message" Rev. E. E. Samples; Star Spangled Banner—student body; retiring of the colors—Girl Scouts; Taps—"Pat" Rooney and Jim Evans, Jr.

WAR RATION BOARD COLUMN

Ration Calendar for Week of November 15

MEATS, FATS: Brown stamps G, H, J and K expire Dec. 4.
CANNED FOODS: Blue X, Y and Z (Book 2) expire Nov. 20.
Green A, B, C (Book 4) expire Dec. 20.
SUGAR: No. 29 (Book 4) good for 5 pounds through Jan. 15, 1944.
SHOES: No. 18 (Book 1) valid indefinitely.
Plane stamp No. 1 (Book 3) now valid.
GASOLINE: A-8 coupons expire Nov. 21.

Validity Dates for Brown Stamps

OPA has announced dates when four more sets of brown stamps in Book 3 will be good for buying rationed meats and fats. With expiration dates they are:
L-16: points, valid Nov. 21, expires Jan. 1
M-16: points, valid Nov. 28, expires Jan. 1
N-16: points, valid Dec. 5, expires Jan. 1
P-16: points, valid Dec. 12, expires Jan. 1

Townpeople are assured a wider variety of rationed meat next spring by OPA which has announced a "borrow" plan whereby meat wholesalers will be able to fill their storage freezers between now and mid-January, the peak period of meat output.

Wholesalers who have the facilities to store meat will be loaned ration points with which to "buy" supplies during the fall period of high production. This will give them a greater variety of meat for retail sale next spring than would otherwise be possible during that period of low production.

OPA has announced that the meats for which point loans will be made are veal, lamb, mutton and the lower grades of beef. It expects wholesalers to buy substantial amounts of meat under the point-loan arrangement.

Sorghum Syrup Uncellaged

Sorghum syrup, a delicacy of the sorghum cane country, is not under OPA price control except the confectioners' trolleed mark-ups of wholesalers and retailers. Sorghum syrup is regarded as an unprocessed farm commodity because most of it is produced at home.

RECEIVES WINGS

Lieutenant Hugh James Posner, son of Mrs. Mary Posner of New Orleans and Henderson Point, has received his commission and wings from the United States Army Air Corps. Lt. Posner attended St. Stanislaus both as a boarder and day student and graduated in the class of '33 receiving the scholarship medal. He studied accounting D. C. and held a position there in the United States Treasury before entering the service.

Lt. Posner has many friends in Bay St. Louis who are glad to hear this good news of him.

HOSPITAL NOTES

Mrs. Clarence Garcia gave birth to a baby girl on Wednesday night, November 10 at the Kings Daughters Hospital which weighed only four pounds. The baby is being kept in the hospital's incubator and latest reports are that it is doing nicely and will live.

Mr. and Mrs. Garcia are residents of Clermont Harbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Davis announced the birth of a daughter, on Thursday, November 11th, at the Kings Daughters Hospital.

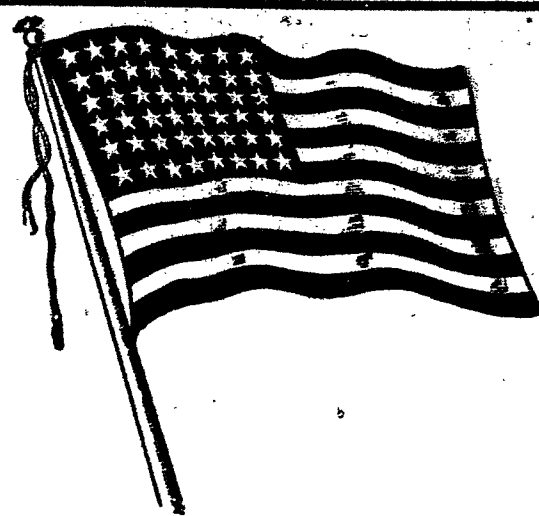

SENIOR CLASS OF BAY HIGH '44 SPORTING CLASS RINGS

The Bay High Senior Class of '44 are sporting their class rings. Mrs. Watson, their sponsor, was presented with a pin just like the rings, by the Seniors.

The P. T. A. of Bay High School held their monthly meeting on November 9th. The flag and attendance shield was presented to the Senior Class for the largest attendance at the meeting. The Seniors started the Wednesday morning class off right by giving "The Pledge of Allegiance" to the Flag.

IN THE SWEAT OF EVERY MAN WHO LABORS

A MAN in a far Western city who owns his home and has a family, is now earning approximately $92 weekly. His is not a temporary war job. He works in the communications industry. He is an almost invisible speck in what is so popularly called middle class America. He is a good citizen—the best type that this country can produce.

But this middle class American is worried. Every other week when he receives his check, he finds that $45 has been deducted—taxes, bonds, old age insurance, etc. He is worried because he is thrifty and that $45 deduction virtually eliminates the possibility of gradually accumulating savings, that is, savings over which he can exercise his individual judgment. The $45 taken from him every two weeks is subtracted from his check by the company for which he works. He never sees it. It goes directly to the Federal government where it is eventually turned over to various agencies to be applied to "essential" activities—among them Social Security. Money that this man labored long hours to earn, and which he has never even seen, is expended by unknown officials thousands of miles away who know or care nothing about his personal affairs.

This man, this ordinary American citizen, does not begrudge in the slightest, the money given to the government from his check for taxes and bonds to fight the war. But when some bureaucrat now proposes "free" medical care, or free this or that, under a greater paternalistic bureaucracy, he becomes more than skeptical. He sees red. He knows that every such scheme means more deductions from his dwindling check and less chance for him to shape his future on his own initiative. His money, together with that of millions of other citizens, is keeping the bureaucrat going. And someday the bureaucrat is destined to feel his wrath.

MORE OPTIMISTIC THAN LEADERS

THERE is considerable evidence that the people are not inclined to agree with their military and political leaders who are almost unanimous in predicting a hard, bloody battle before the war with Germany ends.

This is due, in part, to the conviction that no responsible leader of a nation at war can afford, at this stage, to intimate that victory is just around the corner for fear of a letdown in national efforts.

It is argued that even if our officials believed that the end of the war is approaching they know that the only sure way to win is to keep up the unrelenting attacks that have produced such results and that maximum national exertion is necessary to deliver the knockout punch.

We know that the war maps, intelligently studied, reveal that the Nazis have suffered heavy losses in the past twelve months, both in Russia and in the Mediterranean area. The bombing of German-held centers is in high gear, with greater destruction than ever before. Altogether the war-signs are encouraging but the cautious statements of our leaders may be justified by facts that are unknown to the general public.

CONSERVE TRANSPORTATION

TRANSPORTATION difficulties may develop in 1944, which makes it more important than ever that Hancock County truck owners, including farmers, increase their efforts to conserve transportation facilities.

The Bureau of Agricultural Economics says that it is questionable whether railroads and trucks will be able to handle the prospective increase in industrial and farm production. Both forms of transportation are beset with problems of shortages of manpower and equipment.

While the report was directed to farmers, the general public can take warning from the prediction that there will be a considerable decrease in the number of motor vehicles in operation by the end of 1944.

While the railroads of the country have done a good war job in providing transportation, a considerable volume of traffic is handled by motor vehicles which, in many instances, make service available where railroad transportation is lacking.

The contribution that motor vehicles have made to the development of our modern society is often overlooked. Despite gasoline restrictions, many motor vehicles are used unwisely and unnecessarily.

In view of the threatened scarcity of transportation in 1944, it might be profitable to prolong the life of motor vehicles by eliminating all but essential use.

A SOURCE OF INFORMATION

WE do not agree with all the criticism that is directed against all the free mail that is dispatched by government departments and agencies, even though as Senator Byrd asserts, it takes "the mailman to every household in the United States at least once a week."

This is, if true, an important source of information to the people.

In a democratic nation it is essential that the voters be informed on public questions. If the flood of government mail gives desired information to the people of this country, there is much to be said in its favor.

We are quite conscious of the probability that some of the mail is useless. It is better for the country, however, that there be waste in connection with the distribution of information than that the people have no direct access to much information that is available through government departments and agencies.

BOYS AND GIRLS OF HANCOCK COUNTY

At all times today with this great war being waged for freedom and democracy, calls are being made to our men and our women to give of themselves or their time, so that this wonderful freedom in which we have been born, may be preserved for our children. And to you boys and girls, the youth of today, who will to-morrow be our leaders, the call is no less urgent. The name RED CROSS is synonymous with MERCY, PITY—LOVE. And JUNIOR RED CROSS work is just as vital, just as imperative as the adult branch of this great service. To you young people this organization of Junior Red Cross is now making a direct appeal. They are enrolling members NOW! At all times, and you should be proud to know it and be a part of it, your parents have gone over their assigned quotas in this county in their work in behalf of the war effort. Can you boys and girls fall down and do less than the adults?

Your grown brothers and sisters are serving with the armed forces. The RED CROSS is a symbol of greatest help to them in their hour of need—on the battlefield—or some far away from home Army post. Your mothers and dads are giving of themselves unstintingly, working after hours in voluntary services, doing most generously of their earnings.

This is November, the month of the year that we Americans have set apart as one of Thanksgiving for this wonderful country of ours. The RED CROSS has designated this month for you Juniors. It is up to you to show your appreciation for all that your fathers and mothers, grandfathers and grandmothers, have done to give you this great heritage.

Enroll now with your unit of the JUNIOR RED CROSS. Make mother and Dad, big brother and sister proud of the youth and the job that you are doing. Give them the certain knowledge that boys and girls of today, their dearly beloved children, for whom they are willing to make the greatest sacrifice, are willing to do their job, and do it so well, that the principles for which they are fighting and dying today, will pass on into hands so well trained, that the holding of great nations, by great leaders, with Mercy and love of Fellowman first and foremost, will be the natural emerging of youth of today.

Do your part and do it now. Join the JUNIOR RED CROSS to-day! Make your country again 'go over the top.' Make your grown folk proud of you. This is your call to colors, and the color to-day is the Red Cross of Mercy on the White Field of Purity.

There is a flag that's flying,
With it's colors in the sky
It is the flag of Mercy,
A banner lifted high.

There are flags of every country
That proclaim a nation's pride.
But this flag goes on marching
Next to every other banner's side.

With it's Cross of Red
Upon it's field of snowy white,
An emblem that's an honor
To be united with a nation's might.

For Mercy tempers justice,
And Mercy rides on high,
When the banner of the Red Cross,
Is flaunting in the sky.

One of our every two families have at least two workers. Figure it out yourself how much beyond 10 percent of your family income you can put into War Bonds every payday.

WOW!

It will be a close one!

DESTROYER-ESCORT BUILT IN 25 DAYS

NEW WORLD'S RECORD IN SHIP CONSTRUCTION

Beats World War I Destroyer Time of 45½ Days — Bethlehem Set Both Marks

Has Large Gun-Power for Both Offensive and Defensive Service; Equipped for Surface, Depth Bomb and Anti-Aircraft Combat

Beating all prior records, the destroyer-escort Reynolds was completed and delivered November 3 to the U. S. Navy, by the Bethlehem-Hingham Shipyard just 25 days after keel laying.

The Reynolds is a hard-hitting, fighting unit with great fire-power and speed, a bigger, more powerful ship than the destroyer Reid, which held the previous production record of being built in 45½ days, during World War I. Bethlehem built both ships.

The Reynolds has terrific battle armament for surface, depth bomb, or anti-aircraft combat. Her main battery has guns mounted in three turrets which can revolve in a complete circle to follow a target, and can be fired by a trained crew with amazing accuracy and rapidity. Aft is a 40-mm. Bofors gun, each barrel capable of firing 120 rounds of 2-pound projectiles per minute. She has numerous 20-mm. Oerlikon machine guns with a potential fire-power of nearly 400 shells every 60 seconds. Also, along port and starboard rails aft of amidships are a flock of K-guns which can toss out the famous 300-pound "ash cans" which make it unhealthy for any submarine within hundreds of yards.

The Reynolds is, in fact, one of those powerful, swift, sea-panthers designed by the Navy to drive the Nazi subs from the Atlantic and protect American convoys. She can deliver a terrific curtain of fire effective at 2500 yards against air or surface targets. Like some of her sister ships, she is one of Uncle Sam's contributions to the British fleet.

The first group of ships in the destroyer-escort class were built in 302 days.

The next group in this class were built in 206 days.

Now the Reynolds has set the mark of 25 days.

And she is but one of hundreds of warships steaming out of the shipyards of America to speed the day of Victory.

CIVILIAN AWARDS

Testimony to the effect that the stimulus of the Army-Navy "E" and the Maritime "M" production awards has been very great constantly is accumulating. Both management and labor on the home front have been helped to even greater efforts and devotion to the great task of turning out the vital materials of war. Now both directors and workers in a category other than those previously recognized are to receive an achievement award for work well done. These are the seasonal processors of food. The Navy "E" recognition. But if they are to receive the award of honor they must first be recognized by the War Food Administration's "A" flag. Qualifications considered in selection for the award will include ingenuity in the development of war food products, low absenteeism, cooperation in the various food purchase programs, accident prevention and the like.

A number of vital factors on the home front still lack recognition in the form of public awards. The power and utility companies, the communications companies, and even the enormously busy railroads do not fall within the technical requirements for existing awards. There would seem to be little reason why the powerful incentive which existing awards for merit have supplied should not be extended to such fundamentally important elements as the electric light and power industry, which has shown an increase of 73 per cent in its kilowatt hour output since 1939; or the telephone industry, which last year handled 93 per cent more long-distance calls than in 1939; or the American railroads, which in 1942 increased the ton miles moved as compared with 1939 by 92 per cent and the passenger miles by 135 per cent in the same period. The service industries have done and are doing an outstanding war job. They, too, deserve an accolade.

NOVEMBER IS "CHRISTMAS MAILING MONTH" THIS YEAR

Delivery of the annual flood of Christmas gifts and cards on time, always a serious problem, "will be more than a problem this year—at will be an impossibility—unless Christmas mailings are made largely in November," Postmaster General Frank C. Walker warned today.

"Transportation facilities are burdened to the limit with war materials and personnel, and the Postal Service has sent more than thirty-one thousand experienced employees into the Army and Navy," Mr. Walker said. "The only solution to the Christmas problem is: MAIL IN NOVEMBER. Mark your parcels, 'DO NOT OPEN UNTIL CHRISTMAS.' That is the only way to avoid disappointment on Christmas Day not

ORTIE THEATER SUNDAY AND MONDAY "HITLER'S MADMAN"

Starring Patricia Morison, John Carradine, Alan Curtis

"The ruthless destruction of the town of Lidice in reprisal for the murder of Reinhard Heydrich, 'The Hangman,' and events leading up to the assassination form the theme of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's 'Hitler's Madman,' playing at Ortie Theatre Sunday and Monday.

Introduced with a recital of verses from Edna St. Vincent Millay's "The Murder of Lidice," the film begins when Alan Curtis who has been flying with the R. A. F. returns to his native town to organize underground resistance against the Nazis. At first only the village tramp, Edgar Kennedy, and his boyhood sweetheart, Patricia Morison, agree with him. But Heydrich's brutality in closing the university and in murdering the beloved priest because a religious procession had interrupted the progress of his auto, soon causes the populace to organize into a powerful group of saboteurs.

An Appeacer Recants

The murder of the priest brings Ralph Morgan, wealthy appeaser, to his senses just as he learns that Heydrich will again pass through the town. He tells the lovers, and together they plot and effect the murder of the hated Heydrich.

The cast numbers a host of veteran stars of stage and screen, including Blanche Yurka, Al Shean as the beloved priest, Tully Marshall as a courageous teacher, Howard Freeman as Himmler, Ludwig Stosses and Johanna Hofer, among many others.

only for many civilians but also for millions of members of the armed forces who are still in this country. "It is also the only way to avoid the possibility of Christmas emergency in the transportation and postal services. If the public will cooperate by mailing their Christmas parcels DURING NOVEMBER, we can handle a small volume of light, last-minute mailings, such as cards, up to December 10—but we can do that and avoid an emergency only if November is really 'Christmas Mailing Month.'"

Postal officials pointed out that the volume of mail now is far above any previous records, that railway cars by the hundreds have been diverted to war service and that the air lines have only about half as many planes as they once operated. More than two hundred thousand extra temporary employees normally are employed to help with the holiday postal rush. "This year, the extra employees will be largely women and high school boys and girls who are unable to work the long hours usually required and whose work will be relatively slow."

To deliver the Christmas mails on time, therefore, it is necessary that mailings be spread out over a longer period so that available transportation equipment and postal personnel can be used during more weeks. It will be utterly impossible to make the deliveries by Christmas if mailers wait until the last three weeks before the holiday, as in normal years.

There is another reason for shopping and mailing earlier than ever before. Retail stores are short-handed. Purchasers can avoid shopping in crowded stores, long waits for service, and other inconveniences of late shopping if they buy now. They will also doubtless have a better choice of merchandise than will be available later.

Postmaster General Walker observed that his warning is not an attempt to tell the public what to do; it is only an advance notification of what will happen if they mail late. He feels that the public is entitled to the facts, and that when they know them, they will decide to MAIL IN NOVEMBER.

Have a Coca-Cola = What's the good word?

...or how to get along with folks

Your American soldier carries the keys to comradeship wherever he goes. Have a "Coke", says he to the eager youngsters at home, and it's like saying, "What's the good word?" It's a phrase that's understood in New Zealand or Newport, at home or in far-off places. Around the world Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes,—has become the gesture of good will, saying Let's be friends.

It's natural for popular names to acquire friendly abbreviations. That's why you hear Coca-Cola called "Coke."

AT A & G. THEATER SUNDAY AND MONDAY "FIRST COMES COURAGE"

Merle Oberon and Brian Aherne are co-starring in the roles of lovers, who must renounce their personal lives for the exigencies of war, in "First Comes Courage," Columbia picture to show at the A. & G. Theater Sunday and Monday.

Advance reports indicate that the story is told against a background that is an authentic picturization of the pall of misery that has descended upon the once thriving and happy Norwegian communities now trampled under the merciless Nazi heel. Adapted from Elliott Arnold's best selling novel, "The Commandos," the locale is a mythical village on the southwest coast of Norway, a village that is a composite of all those villages that have been desecrated. Sullen and resentful under the Nazi domination, the loyal ones band together and form a clever underground system whereby they get vital information through to England. This is done chiefly through the town oculist, who writes coded messages in invisible ink on the lenses of eye glasses he makes for fishermen. These messages eventually get through to the British intelligence and thwart many Nazi moves.

In the town, of course, there are Quislings, tolerated in silent fury by the helpless people who put love of country above all. Miss Oberon plays the role of a high-born woman who is thought a Quisling by her compatriots, but who is, in reality, one of the most active members of the underground. She consorts with the commander of the German garrison, thus getting information which she passes on to the oculist.

When the German begins to suspect her, Commando Capt. Allan Lowell (Brian Aherne) is sent from London to dispose of the Nazi. Lowell is the fiancée from whom she was parted when war broke out. They have a brief resumption of their romance, but in the final sequence, which includes a large Commando raid, they are forced to sacrifice their love again.

Then if they (cattle) return they shall be electrocuted by the cattle guard as the cattle guard will be heavily charged. MRS. A. B. PAUTSCH.

Here's Word from Bill!

"...and tell my old gang down at the Telephone Company that I'm thinking of them. I see tons of telephone materials every day over here—in the form of tanks, shells and field communications equipment. We need a steady stream of these supplies to win—and being a telephone man, I know that telephone lines have to carry many calls affecting production and transportation of fighting equipment. So I hope you homefolks are helping to keep the wires clear, for war calls which MUST go through. Love, BILL"

Fellows like Bill Jones—on the fighting front—know what they're talking about when they say that Victory depends upon an unceasing flow of supplies. And at home, those directing the war effort rely on the telephone to keep munitions and men moving forward.

These urgent calls pass through the same local telephone equipment you use. Yet facilities can't be expanded to meet demands fully, because the necessary materials are being made into planes, tanks and guns.

By avoiding unnecessary local calls—and by speaking briefly whenever you talk—you help relieve crowded lines and switchboards for war duty. In that way you help speed vital war calls.

TWO GREAT REVOLUTIONS!

The First Revolution

The Revolution for Independence in 1776 was for individual freedom from oppression—from taxation without representation—it was for freedom of speech, of worship, to work when, how and where one pleased. This was before steam, electricity or other power lightened the burden of human toil.

The Second Revolution

Then came the Industrial Revolution. Man's energy through machinery and enormous investment was multiplied a thousandfold. His courage—ability—energy—initiative—thrift—investment—were rewarded with personal profit and accomplishment. Free Enterprise flourished—greater employment ensued—wages increased—living standards improved—new wants were created and satisfied—and our country became the envy of the world.

What Next?

War has further speeded science and invention. Progress is marking time until the war ends. Individual Freedom and Free Enterprise await the go-ahead signal to move forward to greater accomplishment.

The Interests of Capital and Labor are Inseparable

The businessman's profit and the working man's wages and living standards are inter-dependent. Serving co-operatively, under a representative democracy and a constitutional government, a better world is in the making.

This Railroad's Part

If granted equal freedom by law, regulation, and taxation, as applied to competitive forms of transportation, the "Old Reliable" and its employees will do the same fine job in peacetime for their Southland as they are now doing in war for the Nation.

Higher wages, increased production, greater prosperity, always follow the investment of Capital. They can be assured in no other way. Capital is entitled to a fair return for its investment and risk. Labor is entitled to an appropriate wage. The public benefits from increased production.

The Louisville & Nashville Railroad, with its half billion dollar investment, is regulated enterprise at work. It looks confidently forward to a continued share in developing the South.

Mrs. Ed Carrere, chairman of the recent War Fund Drive wishes to thank her co-workers and those who so generously contributed to this worthy cause. Her co-workers were Mrs. Boyd, Mrs. Chris Ladner of Market Street, Mr. Ben Hart and Mr. Chas. B. Mollere.

Waveland School Children Observe Armistice Day

A program with recitations, songs, and readings was rendered by Barbara Damiens and Lola Price, 2nd grade pupils. Edna Earl McBride, 4th grade. Iris Ladner, Audrey Bourgeois, Gloria Nicaise, Mabel Bourgeois, Jimmie Landry and Wallace, 7th grade. Bobbie Jenkins, Lanell Price, Charles Dean, Earl Ladner, Julie Sol-dinie, Jack Toomey, 8th grade.

To Be Remembered

No matter how far away from home a boy is sent, and no matter how much action he sees, one of his greatest interests is always news from home. They write "Whenever you see anything in the paper about someone I know, send me the clipping." These boys like to get papers from home so they can see what's going on.

Dr. and Mrs. Anthony Russo of New Orleans spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Bourgeois.

Miss Juanita McDonnell of Ellenville, Miss., spent the week end with Miss Dot Bourgeois and family.

Over for a few days with her son and his family came Mrs. L. C. Damiens from New Orleans. She plans to visit another son in Jackson, and there will celebrate her 75th birthday in the early part of next week. Mrs. Damiens formerly lived in Clermont Harbor for a number of years and has a host of friends who wish her a very happy birthday.

Everyone is boasting of the pretty sunny and mild weather for November which makes it possible for week enders to be frequent visitors. Among those coming over last week end were: Dr. and Mrs. Hava, Mrs. Cologne and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Tanchard, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Hirst and mother, Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Thompson and the Schneider family.

Those who went fishing report a good catch.

Mr. and Mrs. King have rented a cottage from "Yonder" on the beach boulevard. Mrs. King's parents from Greenville, Miss., visited with them last week and were enthused over their fishing trip. It was on this visit too, that they purchased some acres in Clermont and plan to spend part time on the coast due to pleasure of fishing.

Thursday Guild Luncheon in Fountain Terrace Roosevelt Hotel was attended by Mrs. Henry Angelle and her guest Mrs. Ben Moise. Mrs. Moise is among the many newcomers to Waveland and purchased the Paul Umbach home on Pine and Tide Streets. Mrs. Moise has won many friends here already, through her charming personality.

—Mrs. A. F. Fourier who has been ill at her Waveland home for the past two weeks is reported improving. Her daughter Mrs. Bob Linfield of New Orleans has been with her mother but has returned to New Orleans.

—Mrs. Josie Olson has returned from a trip to the West Coast of California where her son William Boardman Olson, U. S. Navy, who is off duty because of an accident which resulted in a broken foot. Mrs. Olson reports a wonderful trip to California and to Mexico.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Caldwell of Ashville, North Carolina, spent last week end here shaking hands with old friends. The Caldwell home on North Beach is now the Paul Maloney home but there are many who recall the Caldwell family.

—Lieutenant and Mrs. Kelly Reynolds, U. S. Navy, of Louisville, Kentucky, who motored down with Mrs. Joel Lawrence who is visiting her sister Mrs. C. B. Penney, Sr., have taken the cottage on South Beach formerly owned by the Welchs of Indianapolis, Indiana.

—Mrs. Carmelita Saucier, who has been ill in New Orleans came home last Sunday and remained through the week. Mrs. Saucier is slowly recuperating and will return to New Orleans next week for continued treatment.

—T/Sgt. and Mrs. Robert R. Sterneck, accompanied by Miss Margalo Damborino, left Sunday evening for St. Louis, Mo., where they will visit with Sgt. Sterneck's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Sterneck, and his brother, Lindy, for the next two weeks.

—Rev. and Mrs. E. E. Samples and baby Linda K. left Wednesday to attend the annual Mississippi State Conference of the Methodist District. The members of the Methodist Church are anxious to have Mr. Samples returned to Bay St. Louis. In the ten months they have been here they have endeared themselves to their members and the church has grown.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Anderson who have made their home here for the past two years and who occupied the John McDonald cottage in Second street have left for Birmingham where Mrs. Anderson will be at the home of her mother. Mr. Anderson who was in the employ of the mail service of the L. & N. R. R. has joined the Seabees.

—Mrs. Harold May of New York who with Mr. May has made her home here for the past two years, is by profession an artist and does portrait painting. She was an honor student at St. Louis, at the Art Students League in New York and studied for three years in Spain. She has exhibited in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Washington, D. C. and in California and had a one man show in Spain. She taught art in private schools and in Randolph-Macon College. Mrs. May has done a portrait of Miss Donald McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald McDonald of New Orleans, summer residents of Waveland. She also did a portrait of Mrs. Howard Smith daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Carter of this city. She has just completed a panel for over the mantle for a private residence in New Orleans. The Mays are at present occupying the Bremer home in Waveland.

—While enroute to her new station June Elliott, R. M. 3/c, spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Elliott of Union Street. Miss Elliott who recently graduated as a WAVE from the University of Wisconsin was one of the honor students, receiving the rating of Radio Man 3/c.

—Under the leadership of Mrs. F. J. Nelson, the ladies of the Methodist Church are just completing a course of study on the book "We Who Are Americans." The first two lessons were given by Rev. E. E. Samples and Mr. George Schilling. On last Sunday night Mrs. J. E. Ayres and on Sunday night Mrs. C. C. McDonald will give the closing chapter.

MRS. LEO KENNEY HONOR GUEST AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. Leo Kenney was honor guest at a reunion of her sisters at a luncheon at Hotel Reed on Wednesday on the occasion of her birthday.

Mrs. John Bryan and Mrs. John Dugan of New Orleans planned the celebration which came as a complete surprise to Mrs. Kenney. She did not even suspect that her sisters would be here until they drove up in a car.

Besides the two mentioned there was Mrs. Octavia Burbank and Mrs. Clemence Chadwick and of course Mr. Kenney was in on the secret and kept it and he and his daughter, Miss Irma Mae Kenney were guests as well as Mrs. Kenney's niece Mrs. Donald Jewett of New Orleans.

The table was bright with flowers and toasts were drunk to the honoree.

A happy birthday, Mrs. Kenney, and may there be many more and many more reunions and may you never grow old in spirit.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. Kelly Reynolds of Louisville, Ky., have taken the former Welch home on South Beach. The Reynolds motored down from Louisville with Mrs. Joel Lawrence who has taken a position in New Orleans.

—Raymond Mioton, U. S. Navy has left after a week's leave spent here. He was called here by the serious illness of his mother Mrs. A. T. Mioton who is a patient at the Kings Daughters Hospital. Latest reports are that she is improving.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Koerner who with Mrs. Koerner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clement who have been occupying their home on North Beach have returned to New Orleans for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Clement will remain here. The Koerners purchased the former Stanton home here.

—The Bay-Waveland Garden Club scrap book for the year which just closed is on exhibition at the City-County Library. The scrap book is a work of art and was made by Miss Lucy Richardson and is really worth taking the time to look it through. There is much of Miss Richardson's handwork in it.

—Francis Nelson, Army Transport Chief Disbursing Agent, has been granted a 30 day leave from active duty for rest and relaxation. He has been through rather strenuous experiences and the ship on which he served was torpedoed. He will spend some of the time here with his parents Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Nelson.

GARDEN CLUB MEETS AT HOME OF MRS. A. P. SMITH.

The Bay-Waveland Garden Club met on Thursday afternoon of last week at the home of Mrs. A. P. Smith with Mrs. Edouard Carriere and Mrs. Emmet L. Betzer co-hostesses.

Mrs. Frank Kiefer, the president, reported $50 cleared on the cake sale and stated that $25 of this went to the National War Fund.

The secretary, Mrs. Elizabeth Jenkins, read a request from the Mississippi Federated Garden Clubs, by Mrs. L. P. Ritchie, asking that the club assist in the making of evergreen wreaths for the government hospitals throughout the state. These are to be used as Christmas decorations.

Mrs. L. T. Boyd was appointed as chairman to see who could help with filling this request.

A report from the Hancock County Unit of the Field and Hospital Council Service stated that the unit would make 600 Christmas stockings for the Christmas Trees at Gulfport Field.

Mrs. Pate suggested the hanging of the large ornamental Christmas wreaths on the churches and Mrs. Pate and Miss Lucy Richardson were named to contact the churches to see if they would like to have this done.

Mrs. Roy Baxter volunteered to act as hostess at the U. S. O. Club on Sunday, November 21. Several ladies volunteered to make cakes to be taken over for the boys who will come to the club.

Mrs. Kenneth Knoblock read an original poem on "Gardens" written by Mrs. Kiefer.

She then introduced Mrs. Louis Pate who talked to the club on "The American Flower—the Poinsettia." Refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

Visitors were Mrs. Othma Seaman of Houston, Texas, a guest of her sister Mrs. J. R. Rollins and Mrs. Ben Hart, Waveland.

You might be glad to know about—

- One special for the week is a set of harness received today. Ordered four months ago. If you need a set come and get it.
- One and two gal. Galvanized oil cans. Also metal wash boards.
- A fairly large stock of furniture; items such as beds, mattresses, springs, chairs, tables, oil stoves, gas stoves and a good selection of coal and wood heaters.
- One sack of seed oats.
- Slate surface roofing—Red and green.
